I'm not surprised that it went well despite the last minute notice of responsibilities. Sorry I couldn't make it.

Sorry for the last minute notice on your role in that briefing. I'm very grateful knowing we can count on you both, without hesitation, to step up and conduct a briefing of this nature. You were on point and provided honest and helpful information to best inform Greg. I'm so very appreciative of all your efforts to conserve this species. Thanks again!
